Porter County Clerk, IN

Jessica Bailey has proudly served as the Porter County Clerk since 2019. As a servant leader, she is committed to overseeing the departments within the Clerk's Office and the Board of Elections & Registration with dedication, professionalism, and integrity.

Jessica believes strongly in lifelong learning and has exemplified that commitment throughout her career. She earned her Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree from Purdue University Northwest and her Master of Public Administration and Nonprofit Management from Walden University, where she graduated as a member of Pi Alpha Alpha, the national honor society for public affairs and administration.

She has continued to expand her professional expertise through advanced coursework with the Professional Leadership Academy and the AIC Institute for Excellence in County Government. Jessica was also accepted into the CEATS (Certificate in Election Administration, Technology, & Security) program through VSTOP at Ball State University, further strengthening her ability to serve with transparency, accountability, and integrity. Through this opportunity, Porter County has been able to enhance and modernize several election and administrative processes.

Outside of her professional responsibilities, Jessica enjoys traveling with her family, attending sporting events, and serving on committees for local organizations throughout the community.
