Kimberly Riskovitch

Election Clerk
St. Joseph County, IN

Kimberly Riskovitch is a bona fide elections geek who has dedicated more than 20 years to the world of elections. She began her career as an absentee worker in 2004, became a Voter Registration Clerk in 2007, and was appointed as the Voter Registration Board Member in 2018. After a short stint working for Congresswoman Jackie Walorski in 2022, Kimberly returned to her true passion and was rehired by the St. Joseph County Clerk's Office as Election Clerk in 2023.

In her role, Kimberly oversees the Voter Registration Office and manages all aspects of elections. She especially enjoys interacting with candidates and elected officials from all political parties and takes pride in helping ensure fair and efficient elections for the community.

When not at work, Kimberly enjoys spending time with her husband of 15 years, Doug, and having fun with their seven children and seven grandchildren. She also loves attending concerts with her sister, cooking, and curling up with a good book and her fur babies.
